

Feedback from clients

The course director was very experienced and it was a pleasure learning from her well thought out teaching mode.

Jane is passionate about English which is contagious.

Excellent course and lots of fun.

It was an educational course which has definitely changed my way of report writing

Dr English is extremely knowledgeable and her course was light and fun!

This course was enjoyable, extremely useful. Jane was organized. Thanks a lot and a good job.

Jane expresses her points well and explains clearly.

Very interesting material and information provided.

My presentation skills improved – (she) pointed out what is important

Individual help with the problems I experience; solutions given to improve individual experience – beyond my expectations.

Liked the whole package and presentation (slides and lessons) and involvement of the group and exercises.

Way the course was presented – simple language used and examples given.

The presenter is brilliant. In Cape Flats lingo 'yster'!

Feedback from tertiary students

They say if you can improve / better one person you are a good teacher. Actually I say this!

I enjoyed this course: I think the presenter (lecturer) had a lot to do with that.

Presentation, group work, discussion; and the tone and approachability of Prof. English.

I liked the simple language used and examples given.

Excellent lecturer and showed genuine concern for us.

I like the way she gives feedback: she does not criticize anyone; she always sees the best in everyone.

The lecturer is well organised and knowledgeable about the subject

Course material was very useful

I do feel that the course taught vital skills for the workplace. I'll definitely keep the textbook handy in my office drawer.

Excellent! She is involved; judges all equally and controls the class.

Very enjoyable. Jane is very well informed
